

COURSE INFORMATION

CRITICAL THINKING COURSES

CT 101 CRITICAL THINKING

FALL/SPRING/ALL YEARS

3 credit hours

This is an interdisciplinary foundation course in critical thinking. Students learn how to analyze, critically evaluate and construct arguments, detect common fallacies in reasoning, and propose logical and creative solutions to complex problems. Critical thinking skills are valuable in all disciplines and will benefit students in academic contexts and in life. Corequisites: EN109 or the equivalent.